Partner Brand Guidelines

syrve

Welcome to the Syrve partner brand guidelines.

In these guidelines we will outline the building blocks of the Syrve branding including how to use the Syrve logo, the assets that form the brand, the typography and the general do's and don't's of the brand.

Please distribute these to your team and agencies to ensure your marketing materials are in line with Syrve branding policies.

If you have any questions not covered in these guidelines, please contact the Syrve marketing team.

Purpose & Responsibilities

syrve

Purpose of the guidelines

The purpose of the guidelines is to provide rules around ensuring:

- Partners reference Syrve brands correctly
- Partners brands are distinct from Syrve brands
- Partners can create effective brands and materials

All Syrve brands and branding material (including logos, designs, websites, trademarks, marketing collateral etc.) are important assets of Syrve.

Syrve protects these assets for the benefit of the brand and partner community.

Partners are responsible for:

- Respecting and complying with Syrve brand guidelines
- Removing or changing any brand material if it is deemed to violate the guidelines
- Costs of rebranding material to comply with guidelines

Syrve

Branding

Ensuring that your brands are distinct from Syrve brands

syrve

Ensuring partners brands are distinct from Syrve brands

The correct ways of referencing 'Syrve' in context when referring to:

- Syrve as a corporate legal entity
- Syrve as an entity in prose

Corporate legal entity

'Syrve'

Entity in prose

'Syrve is a comprehensive POS solution...'

'We have partnered with Syrve for the past 2 years.'

Syrve branding 'do's'

- Partner brand names, domains, and social media assets must be distinct from those that belong to Syrve to eliminate brand confusion.
 - » [Name] for Syrve
 - » [Name] Loyalty built on Syrve platform
- Promote the value of Syrve content and solutions to your customers and prospects through all appropriate means, within the bounds of the guidelines in this document and your contract
- Inform your Syrve Manager of your plans to market collaboratively with Syrve, this includes mentions of Syrve in your company's public relations (PR)
- Ensure you have reviewed this guide prior to creating collaborative marketing materials
- Request approval for all collaborative marketing materials, social media and search criteria or advertising
- Ensure you obtain the proper marks (logos) from Syrve if you want to use Syrve branding on a web site or any other materials
- Use approved language and trademarks

Syrve branding 'don't's'

- Use Syrve's branding or name without prior approval
- Use any Syrve brands or names in your company names, product names, taglines, social media handles, advertising key words or any other branding or source-identifying materials:
 - » [Name]Syrve
 - » [Name]SYRVE
 - » [Name]SyrveCloud
- Use Syrve logos or design elements, alongside, or the same size as, your brand to indicate your offering is for Syrve: e.g. [Name] for Syrve, [Name] (for Syrve logo).
- Change the representation of the Syrve name, modify, imitate, or abbreviate any Syrve brands or names anywhere. This includes misspellings, foreign equivalents, stylisations, logo's etc:
 - » syrve
 - » SYRVE
 - » Serve
 - » Servir
 - » SyrveCloud
- In any manner that expresses or might imply Syrve's affiliation, sponsorship, endorsement, or approval other than as contemplated by the contract
- As part of your own business, solutions, products/services, trade dress, design, or slogan, or incorporate Syrve names and any logos from Syrve into logos you design for your own business, solutions, products, or services
- Issue a press release mentioning Syrve without express written permission from the company

Logos & Designs

Using the Syrve brand logos correctly in your marketing communications

syrve

Primary Logo

To ensure the legibility of the logo, it must be surrounded with a minimum amount of clearspace. This isolates the logo from competing elements such as photography, text or background patterns that may reduce the logo's visual impact.

The clearspace dimension is defined as the width of the 'S' in the logo.

Incorrect uses

~~syrve~~

don't change the opacity

~~syrve~~

don't change the colour

~~syrve~~

don't stretch

~~syrve~~

don't add effects like shadows

~~syrve~~

don't add a white box if on dark background

~~syrve~~

don't use on a coloured background

~~syrve~~

don't rotate

~~syrve~~

don't outline

~~syrve~~

don't obscure

Use with photography

To ensure the legibility of the logo, any photography used as a backing for the Syrve logo needs to have sufficient clear space to position the logo without distorting it. E.g. placing the logo on to a busy section of a photo.

The primary Syrve logo should be used with light backgrounds, the white logo should be used with dark backgrounds.

Brand assets 'do's'

- Use partner-approved badges that accurately identify your company and approved status with Syrve

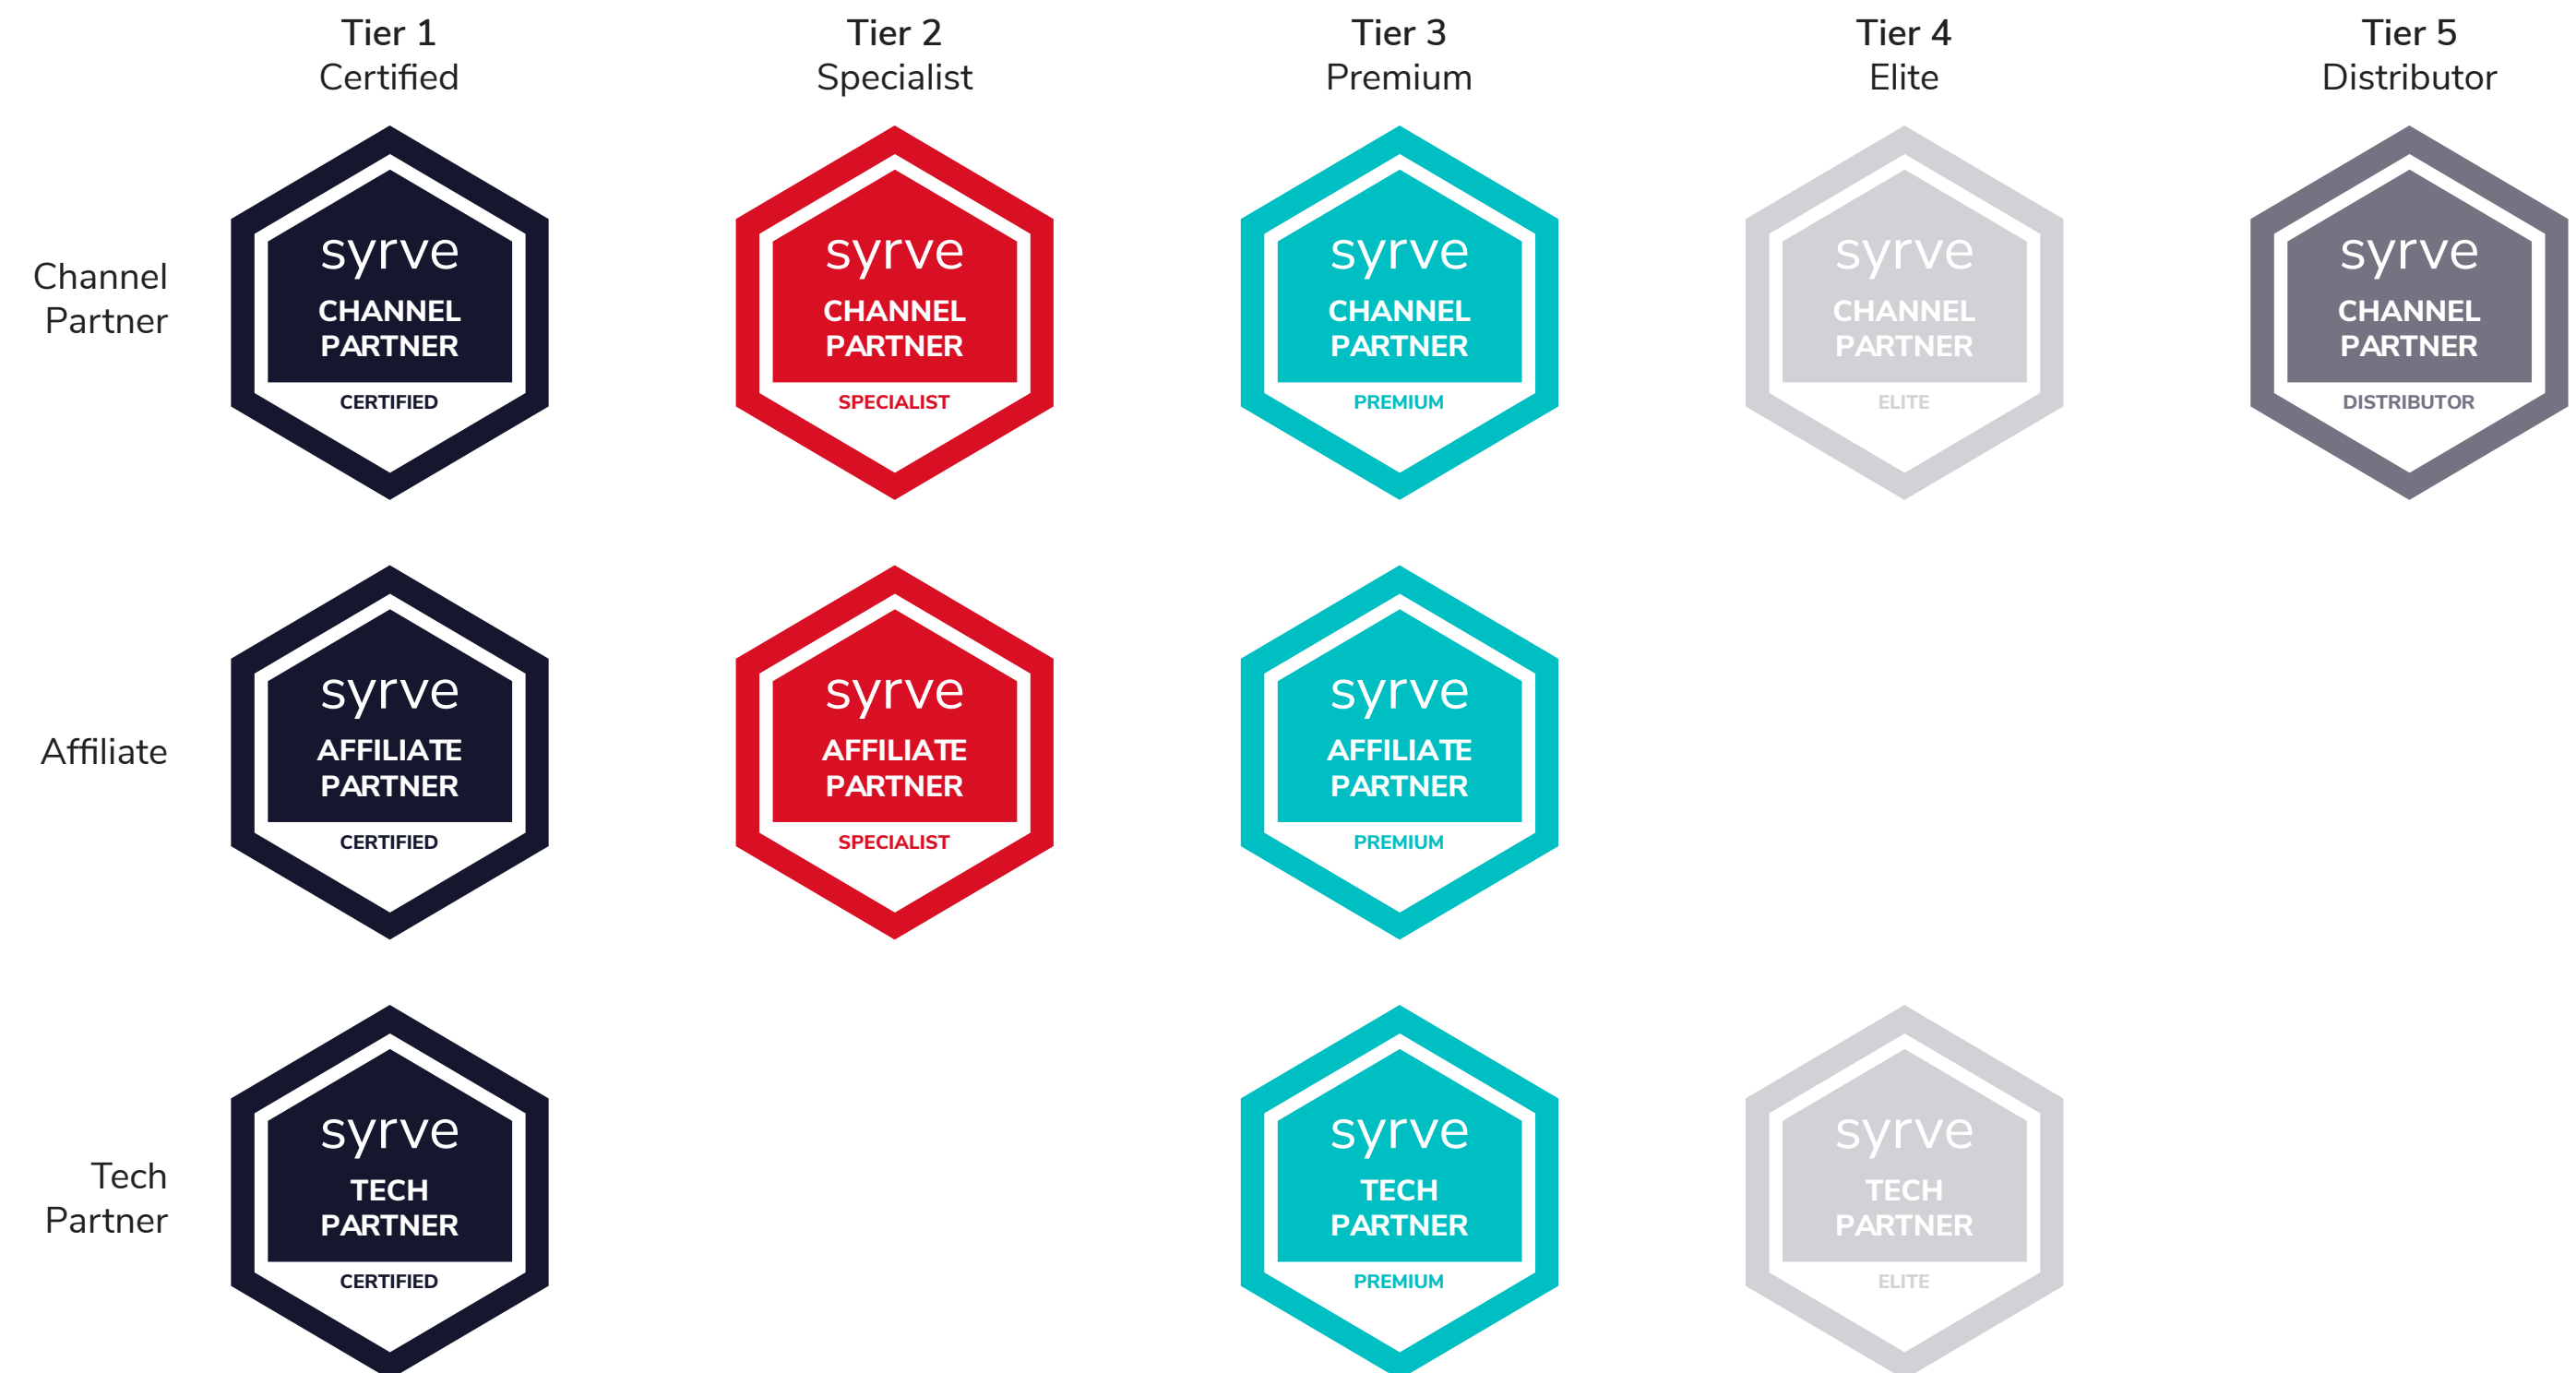

Brand assets 'don't's'

- Use any of Syrve's current or discontinued logos without permission
- Use logos or designs that incorporate Syrve design elements
- Use Syrve brands or product names in any logos created by your company
- Insert your company name or product into an existing Syrve logo
- Create your own Syrve logos or designs
- Create logos or marks confusingly similar to Syrve's
- Feature Syrve logo larger and/or more prominent than your trade name, service name, or trademark on any materials produced or distributed by your company
